UDS, WEBCAST 1 FORM TECHNOLOGY PARTNERSHIP

TECH FIRM TO DEVELOP FRONT-END, BACK-END WEB SOLUTION FOR COMPANY'S 888SUBTOGO.COM.

BOCA RATON, FL — (BUSINESS WIRE) — UDS Group, Inc. (Pink Sheets: UDSG - News), has announced the formation of a technology partnership with Webcast 1, Inc., a full-service website design, hosting, marketing and maintenance company. This development program for UDS's exclusive 888subtogo.com includes the flagship website and major market micro sites, and is expected to last until 2013. The announcement was made by UDS CEO Ryan Coblin.

"We are delighted with the choice of Webcast 1 as our web development partner," Mr. Coblin said, "They bring a wealth of experience, capabilities and know-how to understand our complex needs, and implement a seamless web solution."

UDS is scheduled to launch 888subtogo.com and its initial major market micro site in the fourth quarter of 2009. The flagship website has numerous features including consumer information and online ordering. It will also act as a portal for participating retailers, who will be able to manage their account, use online training, and self-provisioning of marketing materials.

Rick Waters, founder and CEO of Webcast 1, said, "Webcast 1 is thrilled to have been selected as the development partner for the implementation of web logistics for the 888-SUB-TO-GO initiative. We are pleased by the fact that we will play a part in developing a solution that will eventually be utilized by millions of consumers and thousands of business owners to facilitate procurement of new services."
